Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Tuesday 23 Nov 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry and bright on Tuesday.

Today:
A mainly dry day across the region with some sunny intervals once any early mist and fog has cleared. However an isolated light shower remains possible for coastal parts of East Anglia. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Tonight:
Increasingly cloudy through the evening and overnight with the odd spot of rain possible. Some clearer skies, particular in the south, will give the risk of patchy fog and frost. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Wednesday:
Any early mist and fog clearing to give generally cloudy conditions into Wednesday with some isolated outbreaks of rain at times. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Thursday brighter with blustery showers for coastal areas. Into Friday conditions turning unsettled with rain and strong winds, and these conditions will continue into Saturday after a cold night.
